Great Administrators

July 28-29, 2021

Santa Barbara

“The structure (of Great Administrators) allows for your needs to be met. I’m still bubbling with all the opportunities this seminar presented.”

EveryChild California’s Great Administrators Seminar is one of our signature events. A truly interactive seminar designed to help administrators from all types of agencies with a variety of experience levels learn from their peers. Using over 30 years of studies and research materials, Great Administrators is catered to allow to meet your needs for growth at your agency. Regardless of your program type, size, or geographic area; this is an opportunity for you to see your program from another point of view. Come and see why it remains one EveryChild California most popular events! Look below to read testimonials from past attendees!

Testimonials: “It was the best opportunity to meet and network with other administrators who have similar challenges and solutions. I enjoyed how it was peer driven and the topics were focused on what the group chose. I learned so much in a short amount of time. It was more than worth my time...it was priceless!”
“I loved the structure, the networking, the people. I felt this was a very unique seminar...in the best possible way!”
“We sponsored six directors to attend (Great Administrators), we will do it again next year and increase the number!”
